

USB Video Class for 3iCube

3iCube

NET's USB 3.0 cameras with USB Video Class (UVC) provide ease-of-use to machine and medical vision applications. You can run 3iCube cameras without driver installation with all common operating systems and computer architectures, plus configure all relevant camera function with NET's powerful SynView SDK as to your demand. Profit from NET's experience in custom vision solutions!

Functions for Professionals

- trigger
- exposure
- gain
- white balance
- ...and more

System of Choice

- Linux
- macOS
- Windows
- Embedded Vision: Linux + ARM / SoC

OpenCV ready

Use 3iCube USB 3.0 cameras with UVC interface in a license-free software environment. No wrapper required.

Did you know...?

NET's portfolio includes not only individually computed optics, and cameras configured, or adapted to customer requirements, but also complete ready-to-use smart vision systems, and IP cores. Learn how we can support you.