

Suppliers' Declaration concerning Compliance with RoHS-Directive 2015/863/EU

We

NET New Electronic Technology GmbH
Lerchenberg 7
D-86923 Finning

confirm hereby with legally binding effect that the delivered products

(product(s) being delivered)

fulfill the requirements of the EU directive RoHS 2015/863/EU in the currently valid version of 31. March 2015

regarding the restrictive use of certain hazardous materials in electric appliances within the allowable limits.

We are aware of the legal requirement that possibly prohibited materials and materials subject to declaration have to be specified without prior request. NET cannot warrant that products from NET customers, in which our products are incorporated, will in turn comply with this ROHS declaration.
